

SPRING CLEARANCE
For Those
Yet to Come
2024

WELCOME TO SPRING CLEARANCE 2024!

Spring Clearance is a fellowship of people. We are in awe at you showing up for yourselves and your recovery.

The third tradition tells us: we are always inclusive and never exclusive.

This year marks the 21st year of Spring Clearance! Of building connections and community. It is a course of miracles, when we consider the number of addicts who walk in the room and move from the death of active addiction, into the life-saving treatment we find here. You are the life-giving message of recovery: A MIRACLE!

Some of you are likely full of nerves. Perhaps sharing a room, or new to sobriety. This place can safely contain who you are at this moment. You are in the right place. Lean into the experience.

We, as a committee, have worked for almost a year to see that Spring Clearance is for everyone. It's not lost on me that I'm the first woman to lead this juggernaut. Here we are at the finish line, and I am so grateful for the diversity of our committee. Our theme "For Those Yet To Come" is a dedication to fostering newcomers and diversity through our Service Committee, and by reaching out to those not yet in the room. It is a commitment to making Spring Clearance more accessible regardless of gender, race, or native language. My hope is that you feel safe enough to be able to lean into our primary purpose: to stay sober and carry the message of hope.

To call forth Life from Death no matter where you are on the spectrum: whether you are counting days for the first time or counting days years into your journey; whether you are an old-timer that has been dry for years or an old-timer that has yet to embrace the richness of our diversity. I hope Spring Clearance becomes a cornerstone of spiritual growth. Welcome Home!

Love & Service,

Lucky M., Chair, Spring Clearance 2024

Step Workshops

Step 1 Skill Transferability: From Managing Our Lives

Friday 7pm-8:15pm ♥ Continental

Our lives were unmanageable during active addiction because our main priority was managing our addiction. We spent 24-hours a day, 365 days a year, developing our managerial and administrative skills to get and use drugs. By removing the drugs, we're able to focus our expertise on something life-affirming and gain a new perspective on the skills we're fortunate enough to possess in our recovery. With a comprehensive set of professional tools & skills, we can approach subsequent steps with confidence. Michael S. and Carlos M.

Step 2 & 3 Surrender, Dorothy! There's nothing magic about it

Saturday 9:15am-10:45am ♥ Main Tent

Surrender, Dorothy! There's nothing magic about it. Steps Two & Three give us practical, powerful tools that can bring sanity and serenity to our lives. All we have to do is turn it on and turn it over. Wes B. and Mark L.

Step 4 & 5 "Say it with a Sash"

Saturday 11am-12:30pm ♥ Continental

Reveal yourself in this 4th and 5th step workshop by creating visual art to explore your personal inventories. Topics such as love, loss, resentments, fears, sex and others will be explored through honesty, open mindedness and willingness. We will provide an opportunity to create trust and share through a pageantry of Personal Inventory Sashes. WORK, WORK, WORK the runway sweetie to experience the 4th and 5th step like never before! Daniel S. and Shanya NC.

Step 6 & 7 So, You Want To Change

Saturday 11am-12:30pm ♥ Patio

In this workshop we will attempt to deepen our understanding of what it means to become entirely ready, learn what actions we can take to prepare for these defects to be removed and what the results may look like as well to increase our willingness to stay sober. We will learn how we can humbly ask God or our higher power to remove our shortcomings. Danny T. and Enrique M.

Step 8 & 9 Make A List/Now Check It Twice

Saturday 2:45pm-4:15pm ♥ Patio

Forgiveness is both an act of self-love and a consequence of self-compassion. Forgiving and being forgiven are necessary if one is not just to endure but to thrive, to live life fully. Step 8 starts this process by creating a list, and Step 9 allows us to reconcile the person we are with the things we have done in the past. This workshop explores what becoming willing looks like in practical terms, different types of amends, and how to make them. Tom R. and Brain Q.

PRIZES GALORE!

Be sure to purchase extra raffle tickets to increase your chances of winning one (or more) of our fantastic prizes. Drawings take place throughout the weekend, but you've gotta be in it to win it!

Step Workshops (cont'd)

Sunday 9am-10:30am ♥ Patio

Who's a better assistant than a higher power that's all knowing and all powerful? Having such a power working in your favor is a no brainer — and it's out there, waiting for your invitation to let it in. In this workshop, we'll introduce you to the practices of mindfulness and meditation to help you foster conscious contact with your HP. And, because there's no better prayer than the one you write yourself, we will delve into the world of words and write custom prayers that suit our own needs. Houssam K. and John C.

Step 12 Say "Yes And" to Service and Sponsorship

10:45am-12:15pm ♥ Movie Theatre

Twenty-four principles help the individual recover and our groups unify. But the 12 principles of service can be just as applicable to our daily lives. Learn about the history of the 12 Concepts for World Service - how they keep the fellowship alive and our triangle strong and balanced. Mel R.

Breathwork to Shift and Recalibrate

Saturday 2:45pm-4:15pm ♡ Morgans Rest.

Sunday 10:45am-12:15pm ♡ Morgans Rest.

Breathwork can take many forms, but most of the forms help regulate our nervous systems and help us get grounded and clear. The breathwork we'll engage in is an activating type that brings physical sensations to shift our awareness away from the mind and into the body. When the body leads the way, we can move toward clarity, releasing stuck energy and coming out generally less burdened. If you need a nudge to get things flowing and back on track, this may be the thing! Chris P.

Sunday 7am - 8:15am ♡ Gym

The purpose of 11th Step Yoga is to enhance the joyous adventure of recovery from addiction diseases by opening the body up to grace, peace, contentment, and power.
